WHY THIS DOG:

If this foster situation is an urgent placement in your foster home where you do not have the ability to sign and complete this foster agreement ASAP, a phone interview will be conducted and you will complete the remaining information at your earliest opportunity. Your verbal phone interview agreeing with our terms and conditions will serve as your approval of this contract agreement.

At any time, our Rescue Organization and approved members, such as transporters, have the right to visit and obtain our animal for any reason, such as vetcare, meet and greet, and rehoming.

By signing this contract, you will agree to send updated photos of animal in your care for the trial period and regular updates on occasion as reassurance adopted animal is content in a loving home. If you are happy with this new family member, we would appreciate your good reviews on any social media since we are a small rescue who goes to HUGE lengths to save animals from harm. Our feeling: If you take time to post on social media, you have time to TAG our Rescue Foundation: HUG Hearts Foundation on FB, IG, and TikTok. All of this shows us you love and appreciate us choosing YOU for your new family member. We always have animals who need homes, thus PLEASE remember us during referrals to good homes. THANK YOU !

By signing this contract, IF APPROVED FOR ADOPTING, you will agree to keep animal updated on annual vaccinations for immunization against canine diseases such as parvo, distemper, rabies, bordatella, etc. and agree not to take animal to offleash dog parks where germs, worms, and other diseases are present, and where she / he could get attacked by unaltered unruly dogs. In addition please be aware this animal may not be socialized around aggressive dogs, especially small fluffy lunging barking dogs. By signing this agreement, you will take full responsibility and are liable for any harm done to animal by any other animals, insects (fleas, bees, spiders) or humans and will get appropriate vet care if this animal is harmed in any manner, including accidents which may occur resulting in broken limbs or bodily injuries.

By signing this contract, if we approve you for adopting our animal, you will agree to license your newly adopted animal and send the necessary new owner registration information in for microchip and animal ID in case your animal should get lost or stolen.

By signing this agreement, you will agree that if the dog you are interested in is adopted into your family, you will contact the original Rescuer, the undersigned, if for any reason things should not work out within 6 months, as opposed to taking this animal to any shelter, any other Rescuer, or advertising on CL or social media for new homes, there are very bad people who do horrible things to these breeds. Thank you for loving this animals as much as we do to protect him not only now, but from this point on.
